PROGRAM

Mark Dodge, James Higgins and David Brant speaking - Kaseware was built on the premise that all Law Enforcement agencies, regardless of size, deserve an easy to use, affordable solution that revolutionizes their day to day operations. Kaseware delivers cutting edge incident reporting, case management, evidence management, integrated analytics technologies and other mission critical capabilities to all categories of LE users. The founders of Kaseware rebuilt and successfully deployed FBI's case management system while serving as FBI Special Agents. They built Kaseware from an "operator's point of view/experience" combined with software engineering abilities. Kaseware is currently deployed with more than 35 law enforcement and corporate organizations.

Janie Lutz – aka Mama Lutz will be discussing next year’s LUTZapalooza Health and Wellness music festival for our military and first responders.

Bridget Schneiderman – will discuss the Events scheduled during National Crime Victims’ Week, April 19-25, 2020.
