

BROWARD COUNTY CHIEF'S OF POLICE

Law Enforcement Officer/Civilian Employee of the Year Nomination Award

The Broward County Officer and Employee of the Year Award Program was created to recognize outstanding services and achievement by a sworn law enforcement officer or deputy and non-sworn employee on behalf of the members of the Broward County Chief's of Police Association.

PURPOSE

The BCCPA Officer and Civilian Employee of the Year Award recognizes exceptional contributions by officer or sheriff's deputy, and civilian employees engaged in the delivery of law enforcement related services or contributions in support of services demonstrated within Broward County.

GUIDELINES

Officers/Deputies and Civilian Employee in good standing with their nominating agency and the Broward Chiefs of Police Association who, during the period of October 1st through September 30th demonstrated:

- Excellence in the delivery of service to the community
- Significant achievement in community policing initiative or problem solving effort
- Selfless acts of bravery or life saving efforts

SELECTION

Any member of the BCCPA may nominate one officer or deputy and one civilian employee for recognition. Written nomination forms and supporting documentation must be submitted to the BCCPA President no later than October 31st. A selection committee comprised of five impartial members will review all nominations and select one recipient for each award. Members of the selection committee shall not serve concurrently and will be nominated and selected by the serving President. Final selections shall be presented to the BCCPA President or designee by December 1st for review and notification arrangements to award recipients and their respective agency representative. The BCCPA award recipients and a guest will be provided lunch and recognized during the December holiday luncheon.
